

W. D. DUKE IS RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF Y. M. C. A.

For Fifth Time He Is Chosen by Directors to Head Association.

McKEE IS AGAIN ELECTED

Enters Upon Nineteenth Year as General Secretary—Organization in Good Financial Shape—Plan to Celebrate Sixtieth Anniversary.

At the annual meeting of the board of directors of the Young Men's Christian Association, held on Thurs- day night at the association building, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: W. D. Duke, pres- ident; James P. Jones, second vice- president; James P. Jones, third vice- president; Charles G. Tay- lor, Jr., recording secretary; O. J. Sands, treasurer; D. W. Durrett, as- sistant secretary; and N. McKee, general secretary. For the fifth time Mr. Duke was elected president, and Mr. McKee entered upon his nineteenth year as general secretary.

The annual report submitted to the directors showed the various depart- ments of the association to be in a healthy condition, and showed the membership to be 1,552. The property was closed for the fourth time in the new building with all current bills paid.

Under the auspices of the "Twenty- Four-Hour-A-Day-Club," the Rich- mond association is supporting W. P. Mills, as its representative in Nanking, China.

A resolution was adopted looking to permanent headquarters at the State Fair Grounds. Appropriations were made toward the support of the in- ternational committee, the State ex- ecutive committee and the Blue Ridge Summer School.

The Richmond association was one of the first organized in America, the first being at Montreal, early in 1854, a year before the first Y. M. C. A. was organized at Boston, Mass. It is prob- able that a formal observance of the sixtieth anniversary of the organiza- tion of the local association, in Decem- ber, 1914, will be held next December. It is a noteworthy fact that, of the first members of the local association, there are still living and active in the work the following well-known citizens: William H. Clement, John L. Williams and Colonel William H. Palmer.
